

It is my understanding that the FCC is looking into creating new laws that would stop telemarketers from calling my house. Please take a look at Indiana's Law that is already in place. The Law is doing a wonderful job here in Indiana and I would hate to see it tossed out by a looser version of it by the FCC.